

A nonprofit dedicated to unearthing and amplifying untold stories in our community

Elderly & Aging Life Story Audio Recording

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE

Rachel Pater, founder of the Richmond Story House, will interview your loved one provide you with edited audio and musical backing that you can cherish and share.

You will also receive a short journal that you and other family and friends can use to fill in your own favorite memories of your loved one.

Rachel is adept at working with folks of all ages to help them tell compelling stories from their lives, but has a special passion for helping elderly and aging folks access their memories. She is excited to sit with your loved one to help ensure their stories live on.

To hear an example of a recording, please visit www.richmondstoryhouse.org

For more information or to book a session, email richmondstoryhouse@gmail.com or call 804.657.7671

COST

$85 (includes interview, edited product, journal)

TESTIMONIAL

"Rachel has been working with our residents and finding the jewels among us! She has a delightful and passionate way of stimulating the many stories that are within the residents."

-Roslyn,
St. Mary's Woods

ELDERLY/AGING FACILITY PARTNERS

St. Mary's Woods, Peter Paul Development Center, Church Hill House, Windsor Senior Living, Hospice of Virginia

